

POLTEKS TEKSTİL MAKİNALARI SAN. VE TİC. LTD. ŞTİ.

POLTEKS was established in 1994 in a closed area of 10000 m2 in Bursa Kayapa Industrial Zone, started its production life with the production of polyurethane and rubber-based machine parts, and later added the production line of Roller Based Textile Machine production into its facilities. In order to take place in the European Market, SC POLTEKS SRL, Romania, was founded as a sister company for its customers' service in 2004. In order to respond to the Middle East Market rapidly, SUPERROLL, Uzbekistan, was founded as a sister company in 2008. Meanwhile increasing its experience and knowledge in this field by producing cylinders for many industries such as paper, nonwovens, and textiles. With the development and technical experience, Polteks started producing calenders and rolls specifically for textile finishing focusing on your special needs and final product demands. Offering engineering solutions supported with 25 years of roll production from scratch. Focusing on the Research and Development Department to keep up with developing technologies to serve your needs in our facilities. Polteks took its place in the Turkish Automotive Industry specialized in producing Polyurethane suspension blocks. It produces for its customers with the attitude of "quality is above all" with TS 16949 quality management system.

PRODUCTS Suspension Buffer, Polyurethane Buffers, Vulkollan Buffers, Shock Absorber, Polyurathane Shock Absorber